LEAP FROM AUTO SAVES MAN'S LIFE

Thomas Blevins Escapes Death at
Glenwood C. I. & W. Railroad
Crossing by Jumping

HIS RIGHT ARM IS BROKEN

Machines Passes on Over Crossing
and Rear End is Hit by Engine
and Badly Damaged

Thomas Blevins, a farmer living north of Glenwood, was painfully hurt last night, and narrowly escaped serious injury, when the automobile in which he was riding was struck by a westbound passenger train at the crossing in Glenwood, damaging the machine. Mr. Blevins escaped with a broken arm of a serious nature.

Mr. Blevins was the only occupant of the car, and was driving north toward his home, after having been in Glenwood on business. When he approached the railroad crossing, he failed to heed the signal bell, and upon seeing the approaching train, jumped from the automobile, landed on his right arm, and within a foot of the driving beam of the locomotive.

The machine passed on over the crossing, and the rear end was struck by the engine, badly damaging the machine, with two broken rear wheels and the back end being caved in.

As Mr. Blevins approached the crossing, Frank Murphy, who was standing nearby, yelled at him, or he would have probably gone directly on the tracks in the path of the engine. In making the jump from the automobile Mr. Blevins alighted on his right arm, and the small bone was broken, and pushed through the flesh, penetrating an artery. Those arriving upon the scene at first thought that he was struck by the engine, as he bled profusely from the artery wound.

The injury was very painful and caused Mr. Blevins much suffering last night, combined with the shock of the accident, but today he was reported to be resting easy, and he is expected to recover unless unforeseen complications arise.

The train which struck Mr. Blevins was the westbound passenger on the C. I. & W. railroad, arriving in Glenwood at 5:30, and in this city at 5:40 in the evening. It was slowing down to make the usual stop at the station, which is only a short distance from where the accident happened.

It is understood that Mr. Blevins was not accustomed to driving the machine, which was probably the principal cause of the accident.

DAMAGE SUIT BASED ON ACCIDENT IN 1919

Emma Root of This County Files
Action Against William White
in Decatur Circuit Court

STRUCK BY HIS CAR, SHE SAYS

Emma Root of this county filed suit in the Decatur county circuit court Monday against William E. White of Greensburg, demanding $5,000 for personal injuries.

According to the complaint the plaintiff charges that on December 24, 1919, she was on her way to the Big Four passenger station in Greensburg to take a five o'clock train when she was struck by a machine running at a dangerous rate of speed without lights. The plaintiff also alleges that she was struck violently and dragged up a driveway for a considerable distance and rendered unconscious. That besides being bruised and cut about the head she has suffered great pain causing her right arm and right leg to become stiff permanently. The plaintiff further avers that her clothing was destroyed to the extent of fifty dollars damage and that since the accident she has been to the expense of medical attention to the sum of fifty dollars.

FORD CAR IS RECOVERED

Machine Belonging to Hal W. Green
Found Near Bruce Graham Farm

A Ford touring car belonging to Hal W. Green, living north of this city, was stolen last night from in front of the Princess theater, but was recovered this morning by Deputy Sheriff Hugh Jones, after the car had been abandoned near the Bruce Graham farm, just northwest of this city. The machine was not damaged, and it is thought that someone took it for "joyriding" purposes. Two young men were seen to leave in the machine, and an investigation was being conducted today in order to ascertain their names.

PETITION FOR CEMENT ROAD HELD SUFFICIENT

Commissioners Appoint Viewers on
Delbert W. Eakins Highway in
Union Township

ACTION ON 3 OTHER ROADS.

At their regular monthly session Monday, after devoting the morning to allowing claims, the commissioners found the petition for Delbert W. Eakins for a short strip of cement road in Union township, just east of White's mill, sufficient and appointed Thomas H. Ertle and Omer G. Gartin, together with Frank Catt, county engineer, viewers. They are to qualify in ten days and report by September 6 or sooner. The road is desired because the river overflows at that point.

By mutual agreement, the provisions in the contracts entered into with Lawrence and Ennis, Arlington contractors, for the construction of the Hiram H. Henley and Harvey J. Catt roads near Carthage, which called for the cancellation of the contracts within twenty days if the bonds were not sold were stricken out and the contracts will be construed as if these provisions never existed. The Henley and Catt petitions are for short strips of cement road in the river bottoms west of Carthage where the river overflows.

The William T. Moore road contract having been cancelled some time ago by the order of the board, the bonds which had been printed, were invalidated, and were destroyed in the presence of the commissioners. The contract was once let but the contractor did not begin the work, and readvertisement for bidders failed to attract any.

FARMERS INTERESTED IN DEMONSTRATIONS

Culling of Frank P. Jones Flock in Jackson Township Indicates Their
Value

SCHEDULE FOR THIS WEEK.

One of the poultry culling demonstrations was given yesterday afternoon on the Frank P. Jones farm in Jackson township, and indicated much interest is being displayed in the different township demonstrations that are being conducted by county agent D. D. Ball.

Yesterday over 30 farmers, interested in the work, were present, and of 115 hens examined, 46 were culled from the flock. The purpose of demonstrations is to teach poultry raisers and farmers the method of culling the loafers from their flocks, and keeping only the active layers.

Demonstrations were to be held this afternoon on Mrs. Hannah Haven's farm, west of Arlington; on Wednesday afternoon on Arthur Talbert's farm southwest of Rushville; Friday morning at nine o'clock at the home of Lowell Norris in Noble township and in the afternoon at two o'clock at the home of C. E. Kincaid in Richland township. Only one demonstration is scheduled for next week, it being on Monday afternoon at the home of Ray Selby in Anderson township.

TAX INCREASES ARE REAFFIRMED

State Board in Letter to County Auditor Reiterates Necessity of Addition to Valuations

COUNTY BOARD IS TO MEET

If Changes Are Made, Officials Hope
to Avoid New Abstract by Making
Refunds on Taxes

A certified statement reaffirming the horizontal increases in property assessments for taxation purposes made last summer, was received today at the county auditor's office from the state board of tax commissioners and it is now in order, under the terms of the Tuthill-Kiper tax bill passed last week by the special session of the legislature, for the county board of review to meet and pass on the increases again.

The local board can not meet until two members are appointed by the judge of the circuit court. Judge Will M. Sparks is at Winona Lake on a vacation and was not expected back until the latter part of this week, but it is thought probable that he will return home sooner since this emergency has arisen.

The board of review consists of the county auditor, treasurer and assessor, besides the two members appointed by the judge. George H. Havens and A. M. Taylor served on the board at its regular session in June.

According to an explanation of the law by the state tax board, which was received at the auditor's office yesterday, there is no way to avoid making a new abstract of taxables if any changes in assessments are made by the county board of review. Local officials are hopeful, however, if any assessments are lowered, that the taxpayer thus benefited may be given a certificate of error which will entitle him a refund when he pays his fall installment of taxes and thus avoid the work of making a new abstract for the county.

The state board, in the letter received today, restated the increases in assessments ordered August 23, 1919 and pointed out that these valuations are necessary in equalizing the assessments of the counties and township with each other and with assessments of the counties and townships with each other and with assessments made by the state board at the time they were issued.

The board's letter is as follows: "Pursuant to the provisions of the Tuthill-Kiper act, the board now considers and reviews all and each of said orders made relating to the equalization of the aggregate assessments of the various counties, townships and other taxing units of the state, and takes into consideration the assessments of all property assessed by the state board of tax commissioners at its several sessions in the year 1919, and the necessity that other property assessed by local taxing officers in 1919 be assessed in the aggregate on an equality with each other and with assessments made by the state board and now concludes and finds that it was necessary in 1919 to make and promulgate its orders of

SUES TO REFORM A DEED

Frederick Hilligoss Alleges He is
Not Considered Heir to Farm

Frederick Hilligoss today filed suit in circuit court against Stella Owen, et al, on a complaint to reform a deed, partition and quiet title of some farm land in this county. The defendants beside Stella Owen, are Drurie Tevis and her husband Solon Tevis, and James Wright and his wife, Ollie Wright. The complaint is based on a certain deed dated in 1875 and involves an 80 acre farm in Orange township, to which Mr. Hilligoss alleges he is an heir, and is not being considered as such by the other defendants. He also filed a petition to prohibit the sale of the real estate while the case is pending in court.

STILL HOPE GOV, COX MAY BE HERE

Democratic Managers Have Not Given up Idea of Him Speaking at Chautauqua, Aug. 14

HAVE REPLY TO INVITATION

Delegation Going to Notification
Ceremony Saturday to Try to

Season Chautauqua Tickets
On Sale at All Drug Stores
The impression seems to prevail that season tickets to the chautauqua, which opens next Sunday, are not available since the supply of guarantors tickets has been exhausted. This is far from the truth as there are plenty of season tickets at $2 each. E. R. Casady, president of the Rush County Chautauqua association, announced this afternoon that they could be purchased at any drug store in Rushville. It has always been the custom to sell tickets for $2 when all of the guarantors tickets were sold.

An effort is still being made to induce Governor James Cox of Ohio, democratic nominee for president, to speak at the Rush county chautauqua Saturday, August 14, which will be known as democratic day.

The previous day, Friday the thirteenth, will be observed as republican day and Governor Edwin P. Morrow of Kentucky will speak in the afternoon at three o'clock.

Political speakers will not be the only attractions on these two days, which were arranged by the chautauqua program committee because this is presidential year and the thoughts of people are naturally centered on politics.

On Friday, the Davies Light Opera company, an old favorite here, will offer a prelude in the afternoon at two o'clock and in the evening will give a full concert. On Saturday the Crawford Adams company will appear twice, with a prelude in the afternoon and a grand concert at night.

Local democrats are not without hope that Governor Cox will speak here. They have a letter from him, in response to their invitation, saying that it is his earnest wish that he may be able to speak at the Rush county chautauqua, but that after the notification ceremonies at Dayton next Saturday, he will be entirely in the hands of the democratic national committee and must follow the advice of the committee in making speaking arrangements.

A delegation of Rush county democrats will go to Dayton Saturday and hope at that time to be able to make arrangements for Governor Cox to be here the following Saturday. They will use every influence they can exert to get his consent to come.

Both parties will make special efforts to get a crowd here on the two political days. The managers of each are preparing special invitations which will be mailed far and wide in effort to bring people here.

TAX BOARD HEARING AUG. 18

Remonstrators Against Road Bond
Issue to Present Case Here

The hearing on the remonstrance against the bond issue to pay for the construction of the William Redenbaugh road in Orange township will be conducted before the state board of tax commissioners here on Wednesday, August 18, according to word received at the county auditor's office here today.

The hearing was set for July but had to be postponed because of the special session of the legislature. Cecil Tague of Brookville is the attorney for the remonstrators and was unable to be present for the original hearing on account of being detained by his duties as senator in Indianapolis.

HE GOT A BUG IN HIS EYE Oliver Dill Hits Buggy Monday Night But No One is Hurt

A horse and carriage driven by Alva Tash, who lives on the Edmund Gartin farm, was struck by an automobile driven by Oliver Dill, living north of this city, at the corner of Main and Thirteenth streets, last night about eight o'clock, and the carriage was badly damaged, with two broken wheels, but Mr. Tash and his small brother, who were occupants of the carriage, were not hurt. The carriage was being driven north and the automobile was coming south in Main street when the accident happened. It is said that the driver of the automobile got an insect in his eye, which accounted for the collision.

ESSIE HUTCHINSON FOUND DEAD IN BED

Death of Arlington Woman Believed to Have Been Caused by Suffocation Following Attack

FUNERAL WEDNESDAY, 2 P. M.

Miss Essie Hutchinson, living one half mile north of Arlington, was found dead in bed yesterday afternoon at one o'clock, death having occurred sometime during the earlier part of the day, it being the belief that suffocation induced by an epileptic attack was the cause of her death.

Miss Hutchinson was 35 years old, and was apparently in good health Sunday, when she attended the dedication exercises of the Christian church parsonage in Arlington. She made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Mitchell on the Hutchinson farm and was accustomed to sleeping late. After she had not made her appearance for dinner, the family investigated, to find her lying with her head face downward on the pillow.

The deceased is survived by one brother, Elmer Hutchinson of Arlington, and many distant relatives, her parents having died several years ago. The funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at two-thirty o'clock in the Arlington Christian church conducted by the Rev. G. H. Lawton, and burial will be made in the Arlington East Hill cemetery.

ATTENDANCE MEDALS AWARDED TWO GIRLS

Edith M. Edwards of Walker Township and Vera K. Reynolds of Union Township Honored

BOTH HAVE PERFECT RECORDS

Two graduates of the eighth grade in the county schools were awarded gold medals for perfect attendance records at the regular monthly meeting of the county board of education Monday afternoon. Both pupils thus honored were girls—Miss Edith M. Edwards of Walker township and Miss Vera K. Reynolds of Union township, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Reynolds of Glenwood. Miss Reynolds lives on the Fayette county side of the main street running north and south through Glenwood, but has always attended the Glenwood school.

It was formerly the custom to award the perfect attendance medals at the county educational day exercises in the spring, but this year the annual eighth year graduation exercises were discontinued and the ceremony was carried at the meeting of the board of education. Neither one of the girls was ever tardy or absent during the eight years they have attended school.

The opening of the schools was discussed at the meeting yesterday afternoon. Most of the trustees announced that the schools in their townships would begin the fall term on Monday, September 6, Labor Day.

NEGOTIATIONS END ABRUPTLY

Poles' Delegates Return to Warsaw
to Get Power to Act on Peace
Terms, Moscow Radio Says

(By United Press.)

London, Aug. 3.—The Bolsheviks occupied Brest Litovsk on Sunday, taking prisoners and war booty, according to an official Moscow wireless here this afternoon.

Army negotiations between the Poles and the Bolsheviks have been broken off and the red armies are only 46 miles from Warsaw following the "disastrous defeat" of the Polish first and fourth armies, according to the official Moscow wireless and diplomatic dispatches received here.

The Bolsheviks through Moscow radio sent word to the Poles that the armistice negotiations had been abruptly ended because the Poles' delegates were authorized only to parley for temporary cessation of hostilities. They were called to return to Warsaw and get power to agree on peace terms. The next meeting, the wireless said, would be Thursday at Minsk.

It is evident intentions of the Bolsheviks to impose a merciless peace on the field of battle. Officials are inclined to doubt that the Warsaw government gave their delegations authority to return their negotiations for peace under such conditions.

While the Polish delegates were on their way to Warsaw, the Bolsheviks delivered simultaneously reports on the Lemberg and Warsaw fronts that they had thrown both the important cities in an imminent peril.

Near Warsaw the reds crushed the first and fourth armies, according to a French foreign office dispatch, and pushed on to a point within 46 miles of the capital. On the Lemberg front the Polish counter attack collapsed after a severe encounter and the Bolsheviks resumed their advance toward the Galician oil fields and the Galician capital.

OPTIMISTIC IN FACE OF CONTINUED STRIKES

Officials of United Mine Workers
Express Confidence in Mines
Resuming Work Soon

PEACEFUL END IS FORECAST

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 3.—Optimistic in the face of continued strikes of miners in some localities, officials of the United Mine Workers today expressed confidence that the mines will resume operations within a short time.

John L. Lewis, international union president, refused to say anything until he looked over the situation. He would not answer questions as to what step he will take to get the striking mine workers back to their jobs in compliance with his order issued Saturday.

Lewis just returned from Springfield, Ill., where he had visited his family.

Ellis Searles, editor of the Union Mine Workers journal, who has been spokesman for the union during the last few days was confident, however, that nothing serious will develop on the action of the miners.

HEARS OF SUDDEN DEATH

John Willis, one of the firemen at the Central fire station received word this morning of the death of his brother-in-law, Knight Crout of Connersville, who died suddenly last night. The deceased was well known here and frequently visited relatives in this city. He worked yesterday as usual, and died suddenly late in the night. Local relatives will attend the funeral tomorrow in Connersville.

Methods to Increase Size of The Strawberry Patch

(National Garden Bureau)

Home strawberry patches which furnished a surplus of berries this year have proved a profitable venture. Berries have continued uniformly high in price and there has been no difficulty to dispose of any surplus. This is the time to increase the stock and the prospects of big prices for another year or more have attracted the attention of many gardeners to the advisability of starting strawberry beds for home use. It does not take a very great space to grow enough berries to furnish an average sized family with a fine supply of fresh, luscious berries and ordinarily of finer quality than can be bought in the market.

Directly after the bearing season the plants, said out many runners, at the tip of each a new plant is borne which will take root and start an independent career. A careful gardener can insure himself a firm crop of plants to increase his beds by seeing that these little plants at the ends of the runners find easy lodging. Stirring the soil and covering the stem near the plant lightly assists and a very convenient way is to pull up the new plants and grow them along until they have made a good root system and developed into strong plants, when they are ready to be planted out where desired.

Dealers now specialize in pot grown plants for starting beds along in August. They are usually ready for delivery about August 1st. Plant a strawberry bed this summer. It is well worth while. It is advisable to start fall beds only with pot-grown plants. Otherwise the beds should be started in the spring. They thrive in almost any soil, but are at their best in a rich sandy loam or light clay loam. The plants should be set no closer than a foot apart in the row and the rows three and a half feet apart. The plants should have a covering of straw or leaves after the ground has frozen in the late fall.

Amusements
"Behind the Door" at the Princess

Battleship and submarine scenes, both exterior and interior, will be technically correct in the Thomas H. Ince special production, "Behind the Door", starring Hobart Bosworth, will be shown again tonight at the Princess.
This was assured when Director Irvin Willatt enlisted the services of Lieutenant John Cook from the H-8 at the submarine base at San Pedro Cal., to guide him through the nautical sets. Mr. Cook approved all the interior boat sets before they were photographed and he was with Mr. Willatt on the battleships and on the submarine while making the exteriors, so that every movement was in strict accordance with naval discipline.
Lieutenant Cook also directed the submarine while the action pictures were being taken. In doing this he performed a remarkable feat. It was desired to get a picture of Bosworth on the deck of the submarine submerged. To get the proper angle the cameras had to be placed on top of the conning tower. Lieutenant Cook was asked to submerge the boat, but to stop as close to the floor of the conning tower as possible, that the cameramen should not be drowned or their instruments ruined.
The officer submerged the boat until the water was within an inch of the conning tower floor and stopped. Mr. Bosworth was, of course, compelled to swim to a nearby rescue boat. Director Willatt didn't even get his feet wet and insists Lieutenant Cook is a complete master of his submarine. Jane Novak and a fine cast of players appear in Mr. Bosworth's support.

THE Mirage of Lower Prices

Many retail lumber dealers have followed the MIRAGE OF LOWER PRICES off into the desert of depleted stocks and have allowed their trade to drop away. Many dealers have actually advised their customers not to build, but to wait for lower prices. This is the HEIGHT OF BUSINESS FOLLY. It is poor business for the lumber dealer and bad for his community. Money is a liquid and unstable thing. THE TIME FOR ANY MAN TO BUILD IS WHEN HE HAS THE MONEY. Ninety-five percent of the money made in our community will be spent at once. If it is not spent for HOUSES and BARNs, it go for AUTOMOBILES. If it is not spent for CRIBS and GRANARIES, it will resolve itself into TRIPS TO PLEASURE RESORTS. If it is not spent for FENCES and SHEDS, it will be invested in imaginary oil wells or fictitious GOLD MINES. IT WILL BE SPENT. Let that sink into your mind and decide whether our community will be PERMANENTLY BETTER OFF if it is spent for permanent improvements or for EVANESCENT PLEASURES.

WE KNOW A LUMBERMAN, an intelligent retailer, too, who is an officer and a director in a bank. The directors wished to build a bank building this year, but he counseled them to wait for lower prices which were due to come some time in the future. WHEN THE LOWER PRICES COME NO BUILDINGS WILL BE BUILT. Let this thought ramble through your brain—when prices are low people do not build. Low prices and poor business walk hand in hand in all lines. When lumber prices are low, other prices are low and people will not have the money with which to take advantage of conditions. In looking over our records, we find that the periods of low prices, were inactive periods in our business. IT IS TO THE INTEREST OF THE COMMUNITY TO ENCOURAGE BUSINESS NOW—NOT NEXT YEAR—AND GET THE MONEY PERMANENTLY INVESTED IN TAXABLE IMPROVEMENTS.

AND JUST A WORD TO PRESENT PRICES. Many think that lumber prices are too high. This is a common fallacy. Lumber prices are lower today than they should be. They are lower than they are going to be a little later. At present prices the manufacturer cannot make a reasonable profit. No industry can flourish unless all branches are making a reasonable profit. The manufacturer—the wholesaler—the retailer—all must be allowed to live if any one of the three is to prosper. Each has his definite duty and his place in the business. THE MIRAGE OF PE - WAR PRICES WILL LEAD YOU ASTRAY IF YOU FOLLOW IT. It is an illusion—it is the reflection of something that used to be but is no more and will not be again.

People who wish for a return to the old price level are unconsciously wishing for demoralization—hard times—slack business—and trouble.

We are telling you that lumber prices are not too high—that now is the time to build—while you have the money and before you spend it for something that does not add to the value of your estate. IF YOU THINK LUMBER PRICES ARE TOO HIGH, just set out a crop of trees and wait for the harvest. Lumber is one of the few crops that is being sold at FAR LESS THAN THE COST OF REPLACEMENT. You may figure what it costs to grow a bushel of wheat, but sit down with your pencil and estimate what it costs to grow and manufacture a thousand feet of lumber. LUMBER IS THE CHEAPEST THING IN THE WORLD TODAY.

Our business for the last year has been conducted along the principles set out above. We have relied on the sound business judgment of Rush County to BUILD WHILE THEY HAVE THE MONEY. Hence we have full stocks and are prepared to furnish large or small bills without delay or substitution. Temporary shortages have been experienced by all dealers due to transportation, but we have overcome this at last and have a stock ample for the requirements of our trade.

The freight advance, effective Aug. 25th, will advance all lumber shipped after that date $3.50 per thousand.

It Depends on the Location

A correspondent of the Daily Republican from Orange township, who fails to sign his name, complains about the Rushville man who recently called attention to the condition of the roadsides in Rush county—that they were unsightly due to being grown up with weeds. He asks if this Rushville man knows what farm work means, if he realizes that the farmer is up at dawn and works until dark. The correspondent also offers to wager that this same Rushville man, let's his wife look after the garden if he has one.

As a matter of fact, we would like to tell the Orange township farmer, whoever he may be, that the Rushville man who suggested to a Republican reporter that some comment be made on the weeds growing along the country roads is a farmer now and has been all of his life. He spent the greater part of his life on the farm, was born and reared there and knows all of the hard knocks which the farmer has to bear.

He merely offered the idea that many farmers had thoughtlessly allowed the weeds to grow along the roads and that it would be well to call their attention to the fact that they were very unsightly and would not give a visitor driving through a very good impression of the county.

Our correspondent from Orange township says that the weeds look better to the farmer along the road than if they were growing along the corn rows in the fields. They look better to all of us outside of the fields, if it is really right to say that weeds look good any place for every well wisher for Rush county wants to see the farmer have the largest possible crops. What helps the farmer helps everyone because it is he who is feeding the world, but that does not mitigate the evil of weeds growing along the roads.

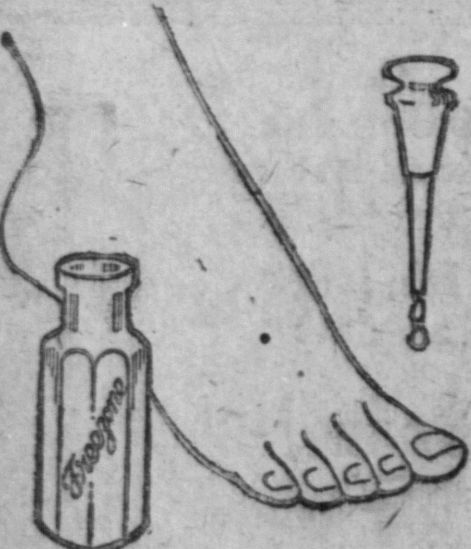

The Rushville man offered the suggestion in regard to cutting the weeds not as criticism but as a reminder to farmers who had neglected to perform this task. He did it in the best spirit and hoped that it would be received as such.

The Orange township farmer says that if the city man comes down to the farm for dinner, he will "never, never see a weed. He will tell you of the big plate of fried chicken and gravy, creamed potatoes, the finest of hooey, the best of jersey butter (We farmers do not eat substitutes. We eat real butter) with flakey home-made bread with all vegetables in season direct from our garden—to say nothing of our luscious fruit".

We'll all have to agree with our Orange township friend. For an invitation to a country dinner like that, we would agree to swear under oath that we never saw a weed though

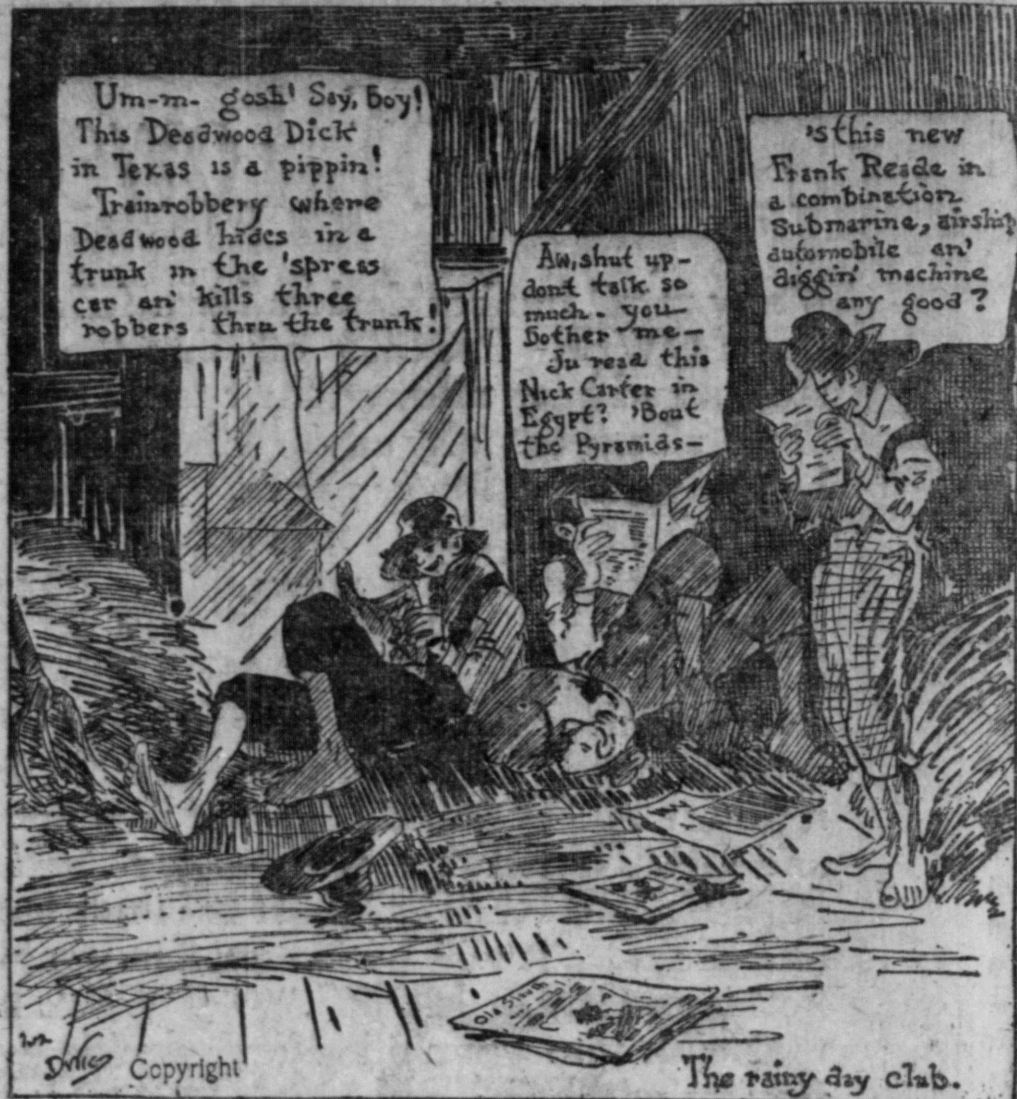

Lift off Corns!

Doesn't hurt a bit and Freezone costs only a few cents.

With your fingers! You can lift off any hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes; and the hard skin calluses from bottom of feet.
A tiny bottle of "Freezone" costs little at any drug store; apply a few drops upon the corn or callus. Instantly it stops hurting, then shortly you lift that bothersome corn or callus right off, root and all, without one bit of pain or soreness. Truly! No humbug!

SCHOOL DAYS

they might make good giraffe pasture.

A Pat and a Kind Word

A certain man well along in years moved into a new community.

He was grading his front yard one day when a bunch of children came along. He spoke kindly to them and patted a little tot on the head.

That was his first act toward them, and from it they formed their impressions of him.

Word went out among the children that he was a nice man and good to them.

All of the children in the neighborhood became his friends. If they saw him a block away they would sing out, "Hello Mr. S."

There was always a warm, cheerful, friendly greeting for him from the neighborhood kids.

When he patted the little tot on the head and spoke a kindly word to the others he was sowing bread upon the waters.

Now the little crumbs have grown into big leaves that never become less.

A pat and a word did it.

We read much about the upper crust of society of the middle class, and also of the lower strata. But it's difficult to find anyone who admits classification in the two latter.

An anonymous writer who hasn't reached the age of polite discretion remarks that point doesn't have the same effect on an old face that it does on an old house.

The fellow who is most convincing is often the one who says nothing.

Some people are always seen, always heard, and never remembered.

NO CHANCE.

I see, upon a printed slip,
On my hotel room door,
What would decide were I to slip
Nor pay my little score.

But nowhere in that quoted law,
As I can see, lying,
I'm told to bust that meekest's jaw
When he inserts his sting.

It does not say that if the food
Is quite unfit to eat,
I straight may trounce that robber,
Good,
With willing fists and feet.

It does not promise if the bed
Is harder than the pave,
That I may swat him o'er the head
And fit him for his grave.

It does not say that when the clerk
Deceives me, as to trains,
I am to smash him in the snirk
For being shy of brains.

No, all the law is, is to Protect the hotel man.
The traveler's rights are mighty few—
He's scarce an also-ran!

The Gadfly.

Some people think the gadfly is a real insect.

The one we mean is the germ of gad, that stings everybody more or less.

There are very few people in whose ears the gadfly has not buzzed and whose cuticle has not been punctured by his little probe.

Travel is something people are supposed to do for pleasure.

If some of the people we see traveling are doing so as a pleasant diversion from their regular life, we'd hate to board with them when they are home.

There are many day-coach pilgrims who carry a paper bag or a laundry-poke full of bananas, embalmed hen, doughnuts, jelly sandwiches and dill pickles from Passamaquoddy bay to the Golden Gate, drinking milky coffee in tubful on the slightest provocation, sleeping with their clothes on (except their shoes) every night, and talking at the top of their voices every time they wake, taking care of eight small children that were born in a bogey; there are people who do this for fun!

It looks almost as funny to us as going and getting inoculated with a boil just to have it to nurse.

A person who could enjoy that sort of travel would be tickled to death with the toothache.

While a trip to the dentist's to have a jaw-feller yanked out would be the treat of a lifetime.

But everybody wants to "go somewhere."

The whole human race are busy little cups of tea.

The lazy ones want to ride, of course, but they all want to go.

The first thing a baby learns is "dog by-by."

The last thing the old tottery one wants to do is to get strong enough to be taken somewhere.

We are all charter members of the Tribe of Gad.

The gadfly didn't miss one of us when he was around using his stinger.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 18, 1920

SALE TO START AT 9:30 A. M. SHARP.

335 - Acre Farm At Auction - 335

Two Miles East of Rushville.

This farm, we think to be one of as good as you will have an opportunity to buy, as it is good rich, sugar tree land and has been seeded to clover regularly and I expect has had more hogs fed on it than any same amount of acres in Rush county.

Buildings are in good shape—Two houses, two barns and other buildings, extra good and complete, tool sheds, cribs, hog houses. Fencing in good average shape. Ditching extra good. Out of the 335 acres, 300 of same is good plow land, balance good pasture land with never failing running spring water.

As this is probably one of the largest tracts of land ever sold at auction throughout this section, we will offer it in lots of from one-fourth up to the entire body, giving everyone a chance at this great opportunity.

All Personal Property to be Sold on Same Day and on Premises.

There will be a big lunch served at noon and we insist that you come out and spend the day with us and witness one of the biggest sales ever held in Southern Indiana.

On amounts of $100 and over, one-third cash, one-third in twelve months, and one-third in 24 months. Interest 8% semi-annually.

Brain Youth

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

SOMEONE has given to us the striking sentence: "To the young, Nature does nothing but give; from the old she does nothing but take away." Your brain is the only Power in your entire body that may not age.

Keep Youth alive in Your Brain.

To your Brain your Will may say: "Life at its longest is but like the looking back and reviewing of a single day." For Youth never returns to your muscles and to your bones and to your arteries—but Youth trots along with your Brain—if your Will says so.

Keep Youth alive in Your Brain.

William E. Gladstone, past eighty, chopping down trees, translating the Classics, anew, tramping the fields and solving mysteries—stands out as one of the most striking examples of those who kept their Brains young as their bodies grew old.

Keep Youth alive in Your Brain.

It is interest that puts Youth into your Brain and drives away age. Just so long as you are interested in the things you are doing, just so long work will grow upon you, strengthening your loyalty and enthusiasm and every ounce of your effort.

Keep Youth alive in Your Brain.

Sleeps Any Old Way
Now

"I am 50 years old and never was sick until 8 years ago when I got stomach trouble. I have spent a fortune for medicine which did not cure. I kept on suffering and getting worse. A fellow worker told me about Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. After taking three doses I felt like a different man; before taking it I could not lie on my back nor tight side. Now I can sleep any old way." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. HUERTA MOVES IN FAMOUS CASTLE

Same Historic Building Employed as Fortress That Americans Stormed and Captured in 1847

HAS A LUXURIOUS INTERIOR

Maximilian, Austrian Archduke, Furnished Residence With Most Exquisite Productions of Europe

By RALPH H. TURNER
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

City of Mexico, July 7 (By Mail)—Famous Chapultepec Castle, splendidly poised high above the park bearing the same name and overlooking the wide valley of Mexico, is once more the home of a Mexican ruler.

It was this historic castle, employed as a fortress, that the Americans stormed and captured back in 1847; and on the same spot, many years before, one of the Montezumas converted the fortress into a summer residence, where he established his harem, baths and hunting lodge.

Chapultepec, besides its historic associations and the magnificent view it commands of the Mexican valley, also wins fame from the fact that it is one of the most luxuriously appointed residences on the American continent. But it held few charms for that bewhiskered old rascalman, Venustiano Carranza. Carranza spurned Chapultepec, summer and winter. On rare occasions he used the palace as a place for entertainment, but as a living place he preferred the simplicity of a plain dwelling in the capital's residence district.

To the more cultured eye of Adolfo de la Huerta, the new provisional president, Chapultepec had more appeal. De la Huerta moved into the castle, bag and baggage, a few days after he had been inaugurated. It is not meant to create the impression that the new Mexican ruler is fond of frills. Far from it. In many lines of administration, De la Huerta has abolished forms of pomp that even Carranza tolerated. But De la Huerta, the practical Sonoran, probably reasoned that the castle was already furnished, that if he didn't occupy it, it would remain vacant and that apartments in Mexico City were mighty scarce. So he called the moving van and Chapultepec Castle is today the "regular residence" of a Mexican president for the first time since the days of the other Huerta, the one who drew the frowns of President Wilson.

"The view is unsurpassed," as the real estate boomer might say, but Adolfo de la Huerta, as he stands on the castle balcony, won't survey the same scenic beauty as filled the eyes of his historic predecessors. Mayard Taylor thought the most beautiful view in the world was that of the vale of Cashmere and after it, the valley of Mexico from Chapultepec heights. But politics—revolutionary politics—has changed the vista since "Montezuma sought distraction from administrative cares and communed with dryad oracles in the hallowed groves of ancient Ahuchuetes."

But De la Huerta may still revel in the comfort of a luxurious interior.

Maximilian, the Austrian archduke who became emperor of Mexico furnished the castle with the most exquisite productions of Europe—marble statues, alabaster vases, period furniture, Oriental rugs—achieving both elaborateness and comfort. In 1866, at the orders of Maximilian, the castle was renovated, the corridors were adorned with voluptuous pictures after the style of a Pompeian villa, and the grounds were terraced. Most of the pictures are gone today.

There still remain, however, the favorite boudoir of the Empress Carlota, its walls adorned in pink satin brocade; the dining salon, finished in beautifully carved Alsatian oak, with panels of Gobelin tapestries; the ambassadorial department, pink and gold in Louis V style; and countless other furnishings which still retain their excellence, including the mahogany bed in which Elihu Root rested his closely cropped head when on a mission to the old Diaz government.

Construction of the castle was begun in 1783, but did not reach its present state until many years afterward. Today it covers almost the whole top of Chapultepec, which in the Aztec language, means Grass-hopper Hill, so-called from the number of insects that once infested the region.

Under the Carranza regime visitors inspected the castle upon obtaining special permits. It is still open to visitors, but being the president's residence, permits are more difficult to obtain and the hours of inspection more limited.

COMMUNITY INSPIRED TO INCORPORATE TOWN

Coke Otto, a small mining community near Hamilton, Ohio, isn't content to be just a group of people any longer.

Coke Otto wants to be an incorporated town.

And it's all the result of community meetings and activities inaugurated by the Rural Extension Secretary of Hamilton Chapter of the Red Cross.

When Hamilton engaged its rural worker, she went among other places to Coke Otto, where perhaps 700 people live. Sanitary conditions were very lax there, so one of the first movements was the organization of a "tin can brigade." This was divided into eight sub-regiments and prizes were offered the group that kept the most rubbish out of the community for a specified length of time.

Subsequent community meetings have shown the people of Coke Otto the need for street clean-ups, flood protection and sanitation. After the third meeting the community decided that better and quicker results could be obtained through united efforts. Hence the plan to become an incorporated town.

Coming Of Night No Longer Holds Old Time Dread

Mrs. Adams Sleeps Better Than She Has For Years Since Taking Trutona

Terre Haute, Ind., Aug. 2.—“I no longer dread the coming of night as used to, and its all due to Trutona,” says Mrs. Agnes K. Adams, who lives in Terre Haute, at 1504 South Fifteenth Street.

“My stomach had been in such wretched condition for about five months, that even though ate only a few bites of toast and drank a little water. I would become bloated and suffer from gas formations. This caused me much misery. I simply couldn't sleep at night. I'd feel as if I'd been fired of mornings as I had the night before. I dragged about many days, trying to do my work when I felt as though I'd drop in my tracks.”

“Well, it wasn't long after I began taking Trutona, that I noticed a marked improvement in my condition. I'm able to eat a nice big meal now, and it doesn't hurt me afterwards. I haven't had a pain around my heart, and that bloating misery from my stomach, is not nearly so bad now. I simply can't say enough in praise of Trutona, when I think of the relief it is giving me.”

Trutona's healthful action reaches every portion of the body performs its work faithfully and efficiently. Trutona rebuilds diseased nerves tissues, creates a healthy appetite, and assists in the assimilation and digestion of the food.

Trutona is sold in Rushville at Hargrove and Mullin Drug Store.

A wedding of interest to many friends in this city and county was solemnized Saturday morning at ten-thirty in Newport, Ky., when Miss Laura LaVaughn Parvis of Connersville was united in marriage to Cecil Hudson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hudson of Connersville, but formerly of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Hudson will make their future home in Connersville. Mr. Hudson is well known here, having lived here until recently when he moved to Connersville.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Phillips entertained last evening at their home in this city with a surprise birthday party, honoring their son Herman's and Glen Sommerville's birthdays. About forty guests were present and enjoyed the evening playing games and with music. The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion in summer flowers, carrying out the color scheme of pink and white. Light refreshments were served at the close of the party. The honored guests received many presents.

Taste Taken Out Of Castor Oil By New Process

Remarkable Method Perfected By Laboratory Experts of Spencer Kellogg & Sons, Inc.

When the doctor says "take castor oil" you need no longer shudder. By a new scientific process all the disagreeable features have been removed from this famous old remedy. Chemists of Spencer Kellogg & Sons, Inc., have perfected a remarkable process by which all nauseating taste is eliminated from castor oil. Nothing is removed except the taste. Strength and purity remain the same—a 100% pure castor oil. Kellogg's Tasteless Castor Oil settles the question of the best laxative. No pills or drugs are so prompt and thorough as nature's pure remedy, castor oil. That's why doctors always prescribe it. If you want a castor oil absolutely without nauseating taste, insist on genuine laboratory filled bottles, plainly labelled Kellogg's Tasteless Castor Oil. Three sizes, 15c., 35c. and 65c. (Adv.)

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wright and family entertained Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Hungerford and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Hungerford and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Warner and family at dinner Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Shepler entertained with a six o'clock dinner at their home in Raleigh last evening. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Aikin and son Milo, Mrs. Orville Estell and son William of Oklahoma City and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Shepler and family.

Miss Helen Reed of Orange has as her house guests this week, the Misses Blade and McKibben of Brookville, Ky. Sunday evening Miss Reed entertained with a pitch-in supper honoring her guests and yesterday evening a weiner roast was given in Scholl's woods near Orange in honor of the two girls.

Mother's Cook Book

All silent she steals in among us—quiet, dreamy August, following close on the footsteps of daisy-crowned July. The poppy blazes in the sunshine, the grain-fields are ripening into golden splendor, and the butterflies and humming-birds seem to have gathered the gorgeousness of Nature's loveliest hues and imprisoned them within their folded wings.

Food for the Family.
For those who cannot eat the fresh crisp cucumber they will enjoy them when cooked.

Cucumber Piquant.
Pare large but not over-ripe cucumbers and slice in half-inch slices. Salt and pepper them and dip in beaten egg which has been diluted with two tablespoonfuls of water, then roll in fine crumbs and fry in deep hot fat until tender and brown. Lay on a serving dish and pour over the following sauce at the last moment: To one cupful thick seasoned tomato sauce add a teaspoonful of prepared mustard, a tablespoonful of lemon juice and a tablespoonful of grated onion.

Summer Squash Soup.
Cut three or four squash into small pieces, mince two onions, add to the squash with two tablespoonfuls of fat, cook until the fat is absorbed. Add a tablespoonful of flour, two stalks of minced celery, two sprigs of parsley, two cloves, two strips of green pepper and enough water to cover. Simmer until all are tender, adding a teaspoonful of salt during the last cooking. Rub all through a sieve, add milk, depending upon the size of the squashes, thicken with two tablespoonfuls each of butter and flour. Cook ten minutes, season highly, adding cayenne, a little ginger and sugar. Just before serving beat well with an egg beater. Serve with a spoonful of whipped cream on each serving.

Buttered Beets.
Cook beets until tender, remove the skins and chop. Reheat, adding a little butter, a teaspoonful of sugar and a dash of vinegar. Serve hot. Olive oil may be used in place of butter.

Savory Potatoes.
Cook potatoes with a beef stew, enough to have some left over for frying or for potato salad. The seasoned potatoes make a much nicer salad and if fried with a little butter are a most savory dish.

HEARS OF MOTHER'S DEATH

Mrs. George Smith Notified of Demise of Mrs. P. S. Kitchell

Mrs. George Smith of North Sexton street received word Monday evening of the death of her mother, Mrs. P. S. Kitchell, which occurred at Fountaintown yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Kitchell was about seventy-five years of age and her death was due to heart trouble and dropsy. In addition to Mrs. Smith, the deceased is survived by three other daughters and her husband. The funeral services will be held at the late residence Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock and burial will take place at Fountaintown.

The fact that Governor Morrow will speak here has been well advertised and a large attendance of republicans from many parts of the state is assured.

The democratic managers in this county have arrangements all made for another speaker in case they learn definitely that Governor Cox can not possibly come.

The demand for guarantors season tickets continues unabated and there are plenty of indications of more interest in the chautauqua this year than ever before. Patrons find it impossible to buy season tickets at $1.50 because they were so quickly taken after they were issued a week ago yesterday.

AMBULANCE IS PURCHASED

George C. Wyatt and Company Add Equipment For Emergency Calls

George C. Wyatt and Company, funeral directors and furniture dealers of this city, have added a motor ambulance to their equipment, which will be used in calls where an emergency exists. The ambulance is equipped with a cot and place for two passengers, and is convertible into a limousine that can be used as a vehicle for carrying mourners at a funeral. The addition of an ambulance is a recognized necessity for this city, as often times injured and sick people must be hauled to the hospital and physician's offices.

FLEAS INVADE HOMES OF INDIANAPOLIS RICH

Residents Living in Aristocratic Part of City Are Entertaining Annual Visitors

CALLED THEM BLACK BUGS.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 3.—They're here again spending what's left of summer with the Indianapolis aristocracy.

Mr. Webster calls 'em Pullex. Can't. But they're generally introduced to the public as fleas.

Flitting merrily from one person to another the invaders are making life miserable in the mansions of exclusive North Indianapolis.

Mr. Webster says further of them: "Fleas are destitute of wings but have the power of leaping energetically."

He said also that the bite is poisonous to most persons, but he omitted the most important part—how hard they can bite. But the pampered sons of the rich right here in Indianapolis can testify to this even if they had no experience with the crotchet infested trenches of France.

Health authorities have answered impatient rings on the telephones to advise means of extermination. The cultured voices of women over the phone usually refer to them as little black bugs, but Dr. Herman Morgan of the city board of health answers them in plain American and tells them that a shorter name for the "little black bugs" is fleas.

This is the second annual flea invasion of the aristocratic homes while the humbler places usually go unmolested.

Thousands of Cases of Dyspepsia

BUT ONLY ONE

PEPSINCO

PEPSINCO is the only indigestion remedy that we know—and we know lots of so called dyspepsia cures—that will almost infallibly relieve an attack of indigestion, food distress or gas. We could almost make claims that would appear impossible, so seldom does this PEP-SINCO fail. But why not consider the recommendation of thousands of people who have used PEP-SINCO, on the basis of their belief in it. Try it yourself; we are sure that the suggestion will appeal to you—you who suffer with indigestion or stomach faults—try PEP-SINCO to-day.

Ask your druggist—he sells and recommends Pepsinco.

STING OF SIN AND SERPENT COMPARED

Capt. J. A. Tench Shows Their Striking Difference in Sermon at Salvation Army Revival

MUSIC PROVES A FEATURE

There was a good attendance at last night's meeting held at the Salvation Army hall, which was the second meeting of the farewell revival services being conducted by Evangelist Joseph Waincott of Shelbyville.

The playing of the band and the good singing of the congregation helped to make the services very impressive. After the singing of the first song, the officer in charge of the Salvation Army work here, Captain J. A. Tench, brought the message of the evening, using for the basis of his remarks, "The Serpent and Sin."

The captain said that "while no doubt the sting of the serpent is bad, it is not as bad as the sting of sin. Yes, you are safer lying on the banks of the Nile surrounded with the most poisonous adders, than you are here in lovely America with sin in your heart. The sting of the serpent is but unto death but the sting of sin will last through eternity." The charming snake was used to draw a lesson to show how the world is charming the young people today away from God.

Meetings today at 2:30 p. m. and 8 p. m. with prayer meeting at 7:45 in the Glory Room. Your presence is requested.

GROCER VICTIM OF BLOOD POISONING

Charles W. Risk, Knightstown Business Man, Dies After Illness of Four Months

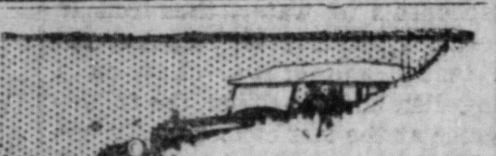

IS SURVIVED BY THE WIDOW

Knightstown, Ind., Aug. 3.—Charles W. Risk, widely known business man of this place, died at his home here Sunday. From blood poisoning, Mr. Risk was 56 years of age at the time of his death and during his residence in Knightstown had become known to a large circle of friends throughout the county.

Charles Risk had long held a prominent part in the activities of Knightstown having been a grocer for some twenty-seven years and a resident of Knightstown during the greater part of his life.

He is survived by a widow, but has no children. The funeral services will be held Tuesday at Knightstown and burial will be made at Glenview cemetery here.

Mr. Risk has suffered for about four months from blood poisoning and while other things contributed to his death this is given as the principal cause for his death, which did not come unexpectedly. He had not been able to take an active part in his business during his late sickness.

NEW OIL SHIPMENT RECORD IS MADE

Eleven Million Barrels a Month Are Produced From the Rich Fields of Tampico

SHIPMENTS ARE DIFFICULT

Envoys and Government Still Argue and Market Conditions Are Given a Set Back

By RALPH H. TURNER
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

City of Mexico, July 20 (By Mail) —There is an odd paradox about the Mexican oil situation which today is being especially well illustrated.

This paradox exists because there are two phases to the "problem" of Mexican oil, first, the angle of political bickering which is carried on in Mexico City between emissaries of the American oil companies and the Mexican government; second, the business of producing and transporting the oil in the rich Tampico district.

The first phase today offers the spectacle of a deadlock between the oil envoys in Mexico City and the government officials. After a series of conferences in which "demands" and "ultimatums" were said to have figured prominently the settlement of the oil controversy in its legal and political aspects, is just as remote as it was under the Carranza regime.

But in contrast to this situation, which would seem to indicate that petroleum affairs were in a very bad way, the men who actually produce the oil in the Tampico fields have just established a record for petroleum shipments of more than eleven million barrels a month.

So whatever the merits of the American oil men's contentions, the fact remains that today the producing and exporting end of the Mexican oil industry is in a more flourishing condition than at any previous time.

During May, the last month for which official figures are available twenty companies shipped 11,200,123 barrels of crude petroleum and its products from the ports of Tampico, Tuxpam and Port Lobos. This is the greatest amount of petroleum ever exported from Mexico. The former record, established in March, was exceeded by nearly one million barrels. Leading the list in May's record exports was the Hansteca Petroleum Company, controlled by E. L. Doheny of Los Angeles. El Aguila, the big British company, ranked second with the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey third.

With production continuing at the rate which has been set today it is estimated that Mexican fields will produce this year a total of 140,000,000 barrels, as against 88 million in 1919. These figures record the remarkable growth of the Mexican oil industry, despite all the charges and countercharges which are made with regard to Article 27 of the constitution taxation and other subjects which have provided international controversy for the past three years.

Increased shipments abroad have been made possible by the laying of new pipe lines and the establishment of other facilities for getting the oil to seaboard. Production, however is still in excess of the capacity for handling it. Mexican experts declare that the petroleum production for 1920 would equal one-third of the entire world output (it is now estimated at one-fifth) were there adequate facilities for shipping the oil. There are neither enough tank steamers nor pipe lines! At the present time it is said there are pipe line facilities for moving 220 million barrels annually and enough tankers in trade with Mexico to carry away about 150 million barrels annually.

According to Roberto Pesquera, Mexican financial agent for the United States and general adviser to the provisional government:

"One-fifth of all the tankers in the world are operating in and out of Mexican ports, but if the combined tank fleets of the various maritime countries were placed in Mexican service, the productive capacity of the Mexican fields, supplemented by some additional pipe lines, would be easily equal to the demand upon them. A few additional pipe lines would ensue full cargoes for the tankers 365 days of the year."

Revelation of Character.

It is in the relaxation of security; it is in the expansion of prosperity; it is in the hour of the dilation of the heart, and of its softening into festivity and pleasure, that the real character of men is discerned.—Burke.

You can make this surprising experiment in our store — The Test of the Two Violins

Violins differ subtly in tone! Test the New Edison Realism by that fact.

We have an "Ave Maria" RE-CREATION played by Albert Spalding with his Guarnerius. This famous violin has a brilliant, singing tone. We have a second "Ave Maria" RE-CREATION played by Carl Flesch with his genuine

Stradivarius. This violin has a rich, mellow tone.

Come in and compare these two RE-CREATIONS—tone for tone. If the New Edison makes clear the distinction between the singing Guarnerius and the mellow Stradivarius, you know it has perfect realism for you.

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

Albert Spalding himself recently took part in a test of the New Edison's Realism, at New York City. He played in direct comparison with the RE-CREATION of his performance by the New Edison. Mr. Henry Hadley, one of the jury of the three distinguished musicians who listened from behind a screen, said: "The RE-CREATION matched Mr. Spalding's performance tone for tone." The New Edison is the only phonograph which has given this conclusive proof of its perfect realism. It has triumphed in 4,000 such comparison-tests.

PRICES! HALT!

Since 1914, the total price-increase in the New Edison has been less than 15%. Mr. Edison has, personally, absorbed more than one half of the increased costs of manufacture. He may not be able to do this much longer. Buy now—if you want today's prices. Our Budget Plan will help you. It distributes the payment over the months to come.

Seven Athletic Associations in Which Women Take Part Give Proceeds to Worthy Cause.

TO EDUCATE THE CHILDREN

Paris, (By Mail)—At a day of feminine sports held recently at Dreux in which were represented seven athletic associations of girls and women from PParis, from Chartres, from Choisy-le-Roi, Auteuil and Dreux, and from the Children's Colony of the American Committee for Devastated France at Boullay-Thierry high honors were carried off by the American trained girls.

The first prize of twenty-five francs for the relay race and the first prize of a similar sum for tug of war—both typical American sports—went to the children from the Committee Colony.

Little Mademoiselle Matneau of Boullay-Thierry won first children's prize and Mademoiselle Ratel, also from the Colony, second children's prize for the running board jump. In the running high jump, too, and the eighty meter dash Colony children ran away with all the honors.

All these prize-winning girls are children brought to the American Committee Colony at Boullay-Thierry from the devastated Aisne. Once undernourished and undisciplined, with nerves suffering from the shock of war, they have been fed and warmed and educated an love back into healthy, happy normality. The girls' gymnastics and musical drill are under the direction of Miss Mary Hirtkamp, an American, while the boys' work is supervised by Monsieus Fallet, a hero of Verdun, with Croix de Guerre and Medaille Militaire.

LEAP FROM AUTO SAVES MAN'S LIFE

Thomas Blevins Escapes Death at
Glenwood C. I. & W. Railroad
Crossing by Jumping

HIS RIGHT ARM IS BROKEN

Machines Passes on Over Crossing
and Rear End is Hit by Engine
and Badly Damaged

Thomas Blevins, a farmer living north of Glenwood, was painfully hurt last night, and narrowly escaped serious injury, when the automobile in which he was riding was struck by a westbound passenger train at the crossing in Glenwood, damaging the machine. Mr. Blevins escaped with a broken arm of a serious nature.

Mr. Blevins was the only occupant of the car, and was driving north toward his home, after having been in Glenwood on business. When he approached the railroad crossing, he failed to heed the signal bell, and upon seeing the approaching train, jumped from the automobile, landed on his right arm, and within a foot of the driving beam of the locomotive.

The machine passed on over the crossing, and the rear end was struck by the engine, badly damaging the machine, with two broken rear wheels and the back end being caved in.

As Mr. Blevins approached the crossing, Frank Murphy, who was standing nearby, yelled at him, or he would have probably gone directly on the tracks in the path of the engine. In making the jump from the automobile Mr. Blevins alighted on his right arm, and the small bone was broken, and pushed through the flesh, penetrating an artery. Those arriving upon the scene at first thought that he was struck by the engine, as he bled profusely from the artery wound.

The injury was very painful and caused Mr. Blevins much suffering last night, combined with the shock of the accident, but today he was reported to be resting easy, and he is expected to recover unless unforeseen complications arise.

The train which struck Mr. Blevins was the westbound passenger on the C. I. & W. railroad, arriving in Glenwood at 5:30, and in this city at 5:40 in the evening. It was slowing down to make the usual stop at the station, which is only a short distance from where the accident happened.

It is understood that Mr. Blevins was not accustomed to driving the machine, which was probably the principal cause of the accident.

DAMAGE SUIT BASED ON ACCIDENT IN 1919

Emma Root of This County Files
Action Against William White
in Decatur Circuit Court

STRUCK BY HIS CAR, SHE SAYS

Emma Root of this county filed suit in the Decatur county circuit court Monday against William E. White of Greensburg, demanding $5,000 for personal injuries.

According to the complaint the plaintiff charges that on December 24, 1919, she was on her way to the Big Four passenger station in Greensburg to take a five o'clock train when she was struck by a machine running at a dangerous rate of speed without lights. The plaintiff also alleges that she was struck violently and dragged up a driveway for a considerable distance and rendered unconscious. That besides being bruised and cut about the head she has suffered great pain causing her right arm and right leg to become stiff permanently. The plaintiff further avers that her clothing was destroyed to the extent of fifty dollars damage and that since the accident she has been to the expense of medical attention to the sum of fifty dollars.

FORD CAR IS RECOVERED

Machine Belonging to Hal W. Green
Found Near Bruce Graham Farm

A Ford touring car belonging to Hal W. Green, living north of this city, was stolen last night from in front of the Princess theater, but was recovered this morning by Deputy Sheriff Hugh Jones, after the car had been abandoned near the Bruce Graham farm, just northwest of this city. The machine was not damaged, and it is thought that someone took it for "joyriding" purposes. Two young men were seen to leave in the machine, and an investigation was being conducted today in order to ascertain their names.

PETITION FOR CEMENT ROAD HELD SUFFICIENT

Commissioners Appoint Viewers on
Delbert W. Eakins Highway in
Union Township

ACTION ON 3 OTHER ROADS.

At their regular monthly session Monday, after devoting the morning to allowing claims, the commissioners found the petition for Delbert W. Eakins for a short strip of cement road in Union township, just east of White's mill, sufficient and appointed Thomas H. Ertle and Omer G. Gartin, together with Frank Catt, county engineer, viewers. They are to qualify in ten days and report by September 6 or sooner. The road is desired because the river overflows at that point.

By mutual agreement, the provisions in the contracts entered into with Lawrence and Ennis, Arlington contractors, for the construction of the Hiram H. Henley and Harvey J. Catt roads near Carthage, which called for the cancellation of the contracts within twenty days if the bonds were not sold, were stricken out and the contracts will be construed as if these provisions never existed. The Henley and Catt petitions are for short strips of cement road in the river bottoms west of Carthage where the river overflows.

The William T. Moore road contract having been cancelled some time ago by the order of the board, the bonds which had been printed, were invalidated, and were destroyed in the presence of the commissioners. The contract was once let but the contractor did not begin the work, and readvertisement for bidders failed to attract any.

FARMERS INTERESTED IN DEMONSTRATIONS

Culling of Frank P. Jones Flock in Jackson Township Indicates Their
Value

SCHEDULE FOR THIS WEEK.

One of the poultry culling demonstrations was given yesterday afternoon on the Frank P. Jones farm in Jackson township, and indicated much interest is being displayed in the different township demonstrations that are being conducted by county agent D. D. Ball.

Yesterday over 30 farmers, interested in the work, were present, and of 115 hens examined, 46 were culled from the flock. The purpose of demonstrations is to teach poultry raisers and farmers the method of culling the loafers from their flocks, and keeping only the active layers.

Demonstrations were to be held this afternoon on Mrs. Hannah Haven's farm, west of Arlington; on Wednesday afternoon on Arthur Talbert's farm southwest of Rushville; Friday morning at nine o'clock at the home of Lowell Norris in Noble township and in the afternoon at two o'clock at the home of C. K. Kincaid in Richland township. Only one demonstration is scheduled for next week, it being on Monday afternoon at the home of Ray Selby in Anderson township.

TAX INCREASES ARE REAFFIRMED

State Board in Letter to County Auditor Reiterates Necessity of Addition to Valuations

COUNTY BOARD IS TO MEET

If Changes Are Made, Officials Hope
to Avoid New Abstract by Making
Refunds on Taxes

A certified statement reaffirming the horizontal increases in property assessments for taxation purposes made last summer, was received today at the county auditor's office from the state board of tax commissioners and it is now in order, under the terms of the Tuthill-Kiper tax bill passed last week by the special session of the legislature, for the county board of review to meet and pass on the increases again.

The local board can not meet until two members are appointed by the judge of the circuit court. Judge Will M. Sparks is at Winona Lake on a vacation and was not expected back until the latter part of this week, but it is thought probable that he will return home sooner since this emergency has arisen.

The board of review consists of the county auditor, treasurer and assessor, besides the two members appointed by the judge. George H. Havens and A. M. Taylor served on the board at its regular session in June.

According to an explanation of the law by the state tax board, which was received at the auditor's office yesterday, there is no way to avoid making a new abstract of taxables if any changes in assessments are made by the county board of review. Local officials are hopeful, however, if any assessments are lowered, that the taxpayer thus benefited may be given a certificate of error which will entitle him a refund when he pays his fall installment of taxes and thus avoid the work of making a new abstract for the county.

The state board, in the letter received today, restated the increases in assessments ordered August 23, 1919 and pointed out that these valuations are necessary in equalizing the assessments of the counties and township with each other and with assessments of the counties and townships with each other and with assessments made by the state board at the time they were issued.

The board's letter is as follows: "Pursuant to the provisions of the Tuthill-Kiper act, the board now considers and reviews all and each of said orders made relating to the equalization of the aggregate assessments of the various counties, townships and other taxing units of the state, and takes into consideration the assessments of all property assessed by the state board of tax commissioners at its several sessions in the year 1919, and the necessity that other property assessed by local taxing officers in 1919 be assessed in the aggregate on an equality with each other and with assessments made by the state board and now concludes and finds that it was necessary in 1919 to make, and promulgate its orders of

Not Considered Heir to Farm

Frederick Hilligoss today filed suit in circuit court against Stella Owen, et al, on a complaint to reform a deed, partition and quiet title of some farm land in this county. The defendants beside Stella Owen, are Dorrie Tevis and her husband Solon Tevis, and James Wright and his wife, Ollie Wright. The complaint is based on a certain deed dated in 1871 and involves an 80 acre farm in Orange township, to which Mr. Hilligoss alleges he is an heir, and is not being considered as such by the other defendants. He also filed a petition to prohibit the sale of the real estate while the case is pending in court.

Induce Him to Come

Season Chautauqua Tickets
On Sale at All Drug Stores
The impression seems to prevail that season tickets to the chautauqua, which opens next Sunday, are not available since the supply of guarantors tickets has been exhausted. This is far from the truth as there are plenty of season tickets at $2 each. E. R. Casady, president of the Rush County Chautauqua association, announced this afternoon that they could be purchased at any drug store in Rushville. It has always been the custom to sell tickets for $2 when all of the guarantors tickets were sold.

An effort is still being made to induce Governor James Cox of Ohio, democratic nominee for president, to speak at the Rush county chautauqua Saturday, August 14, which will be known as democratic day.

The previous day, Friday the thirteenth, will be observed as republican day and Governor Edwin P. Morrow of Kentucky will speak in the afternoon at three o'clock.

Political speakers will not be the only attractions on these two days, which were arranged by the chautauqua program committee because this is presidential year and the thoughts of people are naturally centered on politics.

On Friday, the Davies Light Opera company, an old favorite here, will offer a prelude in the afternoon at two o'clock and in the evening will give a full concert. On Saturday the Crawford Adams company will appear twice, with a prelude in the afternoon and a grand concert at night.

Local democrats are not without hope that Governor Cox will speak here. They have a letter from him, in response to their invitation, saying that it is his earnest wish that he may be able to speak at the Rush county chautauqua, but that after the notification ceremonies at Dayton next Saturday, he will be entirely in the hands of the democratic national committee and must follow the advice of the committee in making speaking arrangements.

A delegation of Rush county democrats will go to Dayton Saturday and hope at that time to be able to make arrangements for Governor Cox to be here the following Saturday. They will use every influence they can exert to get his consent to come.

Both parties will make special efforts to get a crowd here on the two political days. The managers of each are preparing special invitations which will be mailed far and wide in effort to bring people here.

TAX BOARD HEARING AUG. 18

Remonstrators Against Road Bond
Issue to Present Case Here

The hearing on the remonstrance against the bond issue to pay for the construction of the William Redenbaugh road in Orange township will be conducted before the state board of tax commissioners here on Wednesday, August 18, according to word received at the county auditor's office here today.

The hearing was set for July but had to be postponed because of the special session of the legislature. Cecil Tague of Brookville is the attorney for the remonstrators, and was unable to be present for the original hearing on account of being detained by his duties as senator in Indianapolis.

A horse and carriage driven by Alva Tash, who lives on the Edmund Gartin farm, was struck by an automobile driven by Oliver Dill, living north of this city, at the corner of Main and Thirteenth streets, last night about eight o'clock, and the carriage was badly damaged, with two broken wheels, but Mr. Tash and his small brother, who were occupants of the carriage, were not hurt. The carriage was being driven north and the automobile was coming south in Main street when the accident happened. It is said that the driver of the automobile got an insect in his eye, which accounted for the collision.

ESSIE HUTCHINSON FOUND DEAD IN BED

Death of Arlington Woman Believed
to Have Been Caused by Suffocation Following Attack

FUNERAL WEDNESDAY, 2 P. M.

Miss Essie Hutchinson, living one half mile north of Arlington, was found dead in bed yesterday afternoon at one o'clock, death having occurred sometime during the earlier part of the day, it being the belief that suffocation induced by an epileptic attack was the cause of her death.

Miss Hutchinson was 35 years old, and was apparently in good health Sunday, when she attended the dedication exercises of the Christian church parsonage in Arlington. She made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Mitchell on the Hutchinson farm and was accustomed to sleeping late. After she had not made her appearance for dinner, the family investigated, to find her lying with her head face downward on the pillow.

The deceased is survived by one brother, Elmer Hutchinson of Arlington, and many distant relatives, her parents having died several years ago. The funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at two-thirty o'clock in the Arlington Christian church conducted by the Rev. G. H. Lawton, and burial will be made in the Arlington East Hill cemetery.

ATTENDANCE MEDALS AWARDED TWO GIRLS

Edith M. Edwards of Walker Township and Vera K. Reynolds of Union Township Honored

BOTH HAVE PERFECT RECORDS

Two graduates of the eighth grade in the county schools were awarded gold medals for perfect attendance records at the regular monthly meeting of the county board of education Monday afternoon. Both pupils thus honored were girls—Miss Edith M. Edwards of Walker township and Miss Vera K. Reynolds of Union township, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Reynolds of Glenwood. Miss Reynolds lives on the Fayette county side of the main street running north and south through Glenwood, but has always attended the Glenwood school.

It was formerly the custom to award the perfect attendance medals at the county educational day exercises in the spring, but this year the annual eighth year graduation exercises were discontinued and the ceremony was carried at the meeting of the board of education. Neither one of the girls was ever tardy or absent during the eight years they have attended school.

The opening of the schools was discussed at the meeting yesterday afternoon. Most of the trustees announced that the schools in their townships would begin the fall term on Monday, September 6, Labor Day.

NEGOTIATIONS END ABRUPTLY

Poles' Delegates Return to Warsaw
to Get Power to Act on Peace
Terms, Moscow Radio Says

(By United Press.)
London, Aug. 3.—The Bolsheviks occupied Brest Litovsk on Sunday, taking prisoners and war booty, according to an official Moscow wireless here this afternoon.

Army negotiations between the Poles and the Bolsheviks have been broken off and the red armies are only 46 miles from Warsaw following the "disastrous defeat" of the Polish first and fourth armies, according to the official Moscow wireless and diplomatic dispatches received here.

The Bolsheviks through Moscow radio sent word to the Poles that the armistice negotiations had been abruptly ended because the Poles' delegates were authorized only to parley for temporary cessation of hostilities. They were called to return to Warsaw and get power to agree on peace terms. The next meeting, the wireless said, would be Thursday at Minsk.

It is evident intentions of the Bolsheviks to impose a merciless peace on the field of battle. Officials are inclined to doubt that the Warsaw government gave their delegations authority to return their negotiations for peace under such conditions.

While the Polish delegates were on their way to Warsaw, the Bolsheviks delivered simultaneously reports on the Lemberg and Warsaw fronts that they had thrown both the important cities in an imminent peril.

Near Warsaw the reds crushed the first and fourth armies, according to a French foreign office dispatch, and pushed on to a point within 46 miles of the capital. On the Lemberg front the Polish counter attack collapsed after a severe encounter and the Bolsheviks resumed their advance toward the Galician oil fields and the Galician capital.

OPTIMISTIC IN FACE OF CONTINUED STRIKES

Officials of United Mine Workers
Express Confidence in Mines
Resuming Work Soon

PEACEFUL END IS FORECAST

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 3.—Optimistic in the face of continued strikes of miners in some localities, officials of the United Mine Workers today expressed confidence that the mines will resume operations within a short time.

John L. Lewis, international union president, refused to say anything until he looked over the situation. He would not answer questions as to what step he will take to get the striking mine workers back to their jobs in compliance with his order issued Saturday.

Lewis just returned from Springfield, Ill., where he had visited his family.

Ellis Starles, editor of the Union Mine Workers journal, who has been spokesman for the union during the last few days was confident, however, that nothing serious will develop on the action of the miners.

Amusements

"Behind the Door" at the Princess

Battleship and submarine scenes, both exterior and interior, will be technically correct in the Thomas H. Ince special production, "Behind the Door", starring Hobart Bosworth, will be shown again tonight at the Princess.

This was assured when Director Irvin Willatt enlisted the services of Lieutenant John Cook from the H-8 at the submarine base at San Pedro Cal., to guide him through the nautical sets. Mr. Cook approved all the interior boat sets before they were photographed and he was with Mr. Willatt on the battleships and on the submarine while making the exteriors, so that every movement was in strict accordance with naval discipline.

Lieutenant Cook also directed the submarine while the action pictures were being taken. In doing this he performed a remarkable feat. It was desired to get a picture of Bosworth on the deck of the submarine submerged. To get the proper angle the cameras had to be placed on top of the conning tower. Lieutenant Cook was asked to submerge the boat, but to stop as close to the floor of the conning tower as possible, that the cameramen should not be drowned or their instruments ruined.

The officer submerged the boat until the water was within an inch of the conning tower floor and stopped. Mr. Bosworth was, of course, compelled to swim to a nearby rescue boat. Director Willatt didn't even get his feet wet and insists Lieutenant Cook is a complete master of his submarine. Jane Novak and a line cast of players appear in Mr. Bosworth's support.

THE Mirage of Lower Prices

Many retail lumber dealers have followed the MIRAGE OF LOWER PRICES off into the desert of depleted stocks and have allowed their trade to drop away. Many dealers have actually advised their customers not to build, but to wait for lower prices. This is the HEIGHT OF BUSINESS FOLLY. It is poor business for the lumber dealer and bad for his community. Money is a liquid and unstable thing. THE TIME FOR ANY MAN TO BUILD IS WHEN HE HAS THE MONEY. Ninety-five percent of the money made in our community will be spent at once. If it is not spent for HOUSES and BARNs, it go for AUTOMOBILES. If it is not spent for CRIBS and GRANARIES, it will resolve itself into TRIPS TO PLEASURE RESORTS. If it is not spent for FENCES and SHEDS, it will be invested in imaginary oil wells or fictitious GOLD MINES. IT WILL BE SPENT. Let that sink into your mind and decide whether our community will be PERMANENTLY BETTER OFF if it is spent for permanent improvements or for EVANESCENT PLEASURES.

WE KNOW A LUMBERMAN, an intelligent retailer, too, who is an officer and a director in a bank. The directors wished to build a bank building this year, but he counseled them to wait for lower prices which were due to come some time in the future. WHEN THE LOWER PRICES COME NO BUILDINGS WILL BE BUILT. Let this thought ramble through your brain—when prices are low people do not build. Low prices and poor business walk hand in hand in all lines. When lumber prices are low, other prices are low and people will not have the money with which to take advantage of conditions. In looking over our records, we find that the periods of low prices, were inactive periods in our business. IT IS TO THE INTEREST OF THE COMMUNITY TO ENCOURAGE BUSINESS NOW—NOT NEXT YEAR—AND GET THE MONEY PERMANENTLY INVESTED IN TAXABLE IMPROVEMENTS.

AND JUST A WORD TO PRESENT PRICES. Many think that lumber prices are too high. This is a common fallacy. Lumber prices are lower today than they should be. They are lower than they are going to be a little later. At present prices the manufacturer cannot make a reasonable profit. No industry can flourish unless all branches are making a reasonable profit. The manufacturer—the wholesaler—the retailer—all must be allowed to live if any one of the three is to prosper. Each has his definite duty and his place in the business. THE MIRAGE OF PE-WAR PRICES WILL LEAD YOU ASTRAY IF YOU FOLLOW IT. It is an illusion—it is the reflection of something that used to be but is no more and will not be again.

People who wish for a return to the old price level are unconsciously wishing for demoralization—hard times—slack business—and trouble.

We are telling you that lumber prices are not too high—that now is the time to build—while you have the money and before you spend it for something that does not add to the value of your estate. IF YOU THINK LUMBER PRICES ARE TOO HIGH, just set out a crop of trees and wait for the harvest. Lumber is one of the few crops that is being sold at FAR LESS THAN THE COST OF REPLACEMENT. You may figure what it costs to grow a bushel of wheat, but sit down with your pencil and estimate what it costs to grow and manufacture a thousand feet of lumber. LUMBER IS THE CHEAPEST THING IN THE WORLD TO-DAY.

Our business for the last year has been conducted along the principles set out above. We have relied on the sound business judgment of Rush County to BUILD WHILE THEY HAVE THE MONEY. Hence we have full stocks and are prepared to furnish large or small bills without delay or substitution. Temporary shortages have been experienced by all dealers due to transportation, but we have overcome this at last and have a stock ample for the requirements of our trade.

The freight advance, effective Aug. 25th, will advance all lumber shipped after that date $3.50 per thousand.

It Depends on the Location

A correspondent of the Daily Republican from Orange township, who fails to sign his name, complains about the Rushville man who recently called attention to the condition of the roadsides in Rush county—that they were unsightly due to being grown up with weeds. He asks if this Rushville man knows what farm work means, if he realizes that the farmer is up at dawn and works until dark. The correspondent also offers to write that this same Rushville man, after his wife looks after the garden, he has one.

As a matter of fact, we would like to tell the Orange township farmer, who ever he is, that the Rushville man who suggested to a Republican reporter that some comment be made on the weeds growing along the county roads is a farmer now and has been all of his life. He spent the greater part of his life on the farm, was born and reared there and knows all of the hard knocks which the farmer has to bear.

He merely offered the idea that many farmers had thoughtlessly allowed the weeds to grow along the roads and that it would be well to call their attention to the fact that they were very unsightly and would not give a visitor driving through a very good impression of the county.

Our correspondent from Orange township says that the weeds look better to the farmer along the road than if they were growing along the corn rows in the fields. They look better to all of us outside of the fields, if it is really right to say that weeds look good any place for every well wisher for Rush county wants to see the farmer have the largest possible crops. What helps the farmer helps everyone because it is he who is feeding the world, but that does not mitigate the evil of weeds growing along the roads.

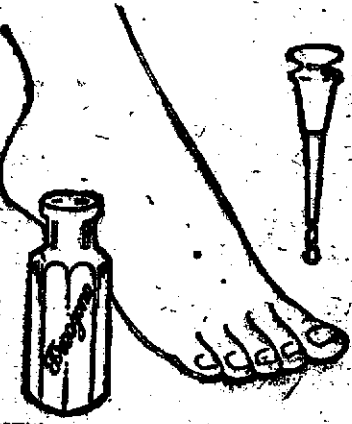

The Rushville man offered the suggestion in regard to cutting the weeds not as criticism but as a reminder to farmers who had neglected to perform this task. He did it in the best spirit and hoped that it would be received as such.

The Orange township farmer says that if the city man comes down to the farm for dinner, he will "never, never see a weed. He will tell you of the big plate of fried chicken and gravy, creamed potatoes, the finest of henny, the best of jersey butter (We farmers do not eat substitutes. We eat real butter) with flakey home-made bread with all vegetables in season direct from our garden—to say nothing of our luscious fruit."

We'll all have to agree with our Orange township friend. For an invitation to a country dinner like that, we would agree to swear under oath that we never saw a weed though

Lift off Corns!

Doesn't hurt a bit and Freezone costs only a few cents.

With your fingers! You can lift off any hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes and the hard skin collars from bottom of feet.
A tiny bottle of "Freezone" costs little at any drug store; apply a few drops upon the corn or callus. Instantly it begins hurting, then shortly you lift that bothersome corn or callus right off, not at all without one bit of pain or soreness. Truly! No trouble!

SCHOOL DAYS

they might make good giraffe pasture.

A Pat and a Kind Word

A certain man well along in years moved into a new community.

He was grading his front yard one day when a bunch of children came along. He spoke kindly to them and invited a little tot on the head.

That was his first act toward them, and from it they formed their impressions of him.

Word went out among the children that he was a nice man and good to them.

All of the children in the neighborhood became his friends. If they saw him a block away they would sing out, "Hello Mr. S."

There was always a warm, cheerful, friendly greeting for him from the neighborhood kids.

When he patted the little tot on the head and spoke a kindly word to the others he was sowing bread upon the waters.

Now the little crumbs have grown into big leaves that never become less.

A pat and a word did it.

We read much about the upper crust of society of the middle class, and also of the lower strata. But it's difficult to find anyone who admits classification in the two latter.

An anonymous writer who hasn't reached the age of polite discretion remarks that paint doesn't have the same effect on an old face that it does on an old house.

The fellow who is most convincing is often the one who says nothing.

Some people are always seen, always heard, and never remembered.

NO CHANCE.

I see, upon a printed slip,
On the hotel room door,
What good would there be to slip
For pay my little score.

But nowhere to that quiet law,
As I can see, I find
I'm told to trust that meatball's jaw
When he inserts his sting.

It does not say that if the food
Is quite unfit to eat,
I might may trounce that robber,
With willing fists and feet.

It does not promise if the bed
Is harder than the pave,
That I may swat him over the head
And fit him for his grave.

It does not say that when the clerk
Deceives me, as to trains,
I am to smash him in the snirk
For being shy of trains.

No, all the law is, is to Protect the hotel man.
The traveler's rights are mighty few—
He's scarce an also-ran!

The Gadfly.

Some people think the gadfly is a real insect.

The one we mean is the germ of gad, that stings everybody more or less.

There are very few people in whose ears the gadfly has not buzzed and whose cuticle has not been punctured by his little probe.

Travel is something people are supposed to do for pleasure.

If some of the people we see traveling are doing so as a pleasant diversion from their regular life, we'd hate to board with them when they are home.

There are many day-coach pilgrims who carry a paper bag or a laundry-poke full of bananas, embalmied hen, doughnuts, jelly sandwiches and dill pickles from Passanquoddy bay to the Golden Gate, drinking milky coffee in tubsful on the slightest provocation, sleeping with their clothes on (except their shoes) every night, and talking at the top of their voices every time they wake, taking care of eight small children that were born in a bogey; there are people who do this for fun!

It looks almost as funny to us as going and getting inoculated with a ball just to have it to nurse.

A person who could enjoy that sort of travel would be tickled to death with the toothache.

While a trip to the dentist's to have a jaw-feller yanked out would be the treat of a lifetime.

But everybody wants to "go somewhere."

The whole human race are busy little cups of tea.

The lazy ones want to ride, of course, but they all want to go.

The first thing a baby learns is "dog-by-by."

The last thing the old tottery one wants to do is to get strong enough to be taken somewhere.

We are all charter members of the Tribe of Gad.

The gadfly didn't miss one of us when he was around using his stinger.

BIG PUBLIC SALE

I, the undersigned, having decided to retire from business will sell at auction absolutely all my property, both real estate and personal

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 18, 1920

SALE TO START AT 9:30 A. M. SHARP.

335 - Acre Farm At Auction - 335

Two Miles East of Rushville.

This farm, we think to be one of as good as you will have an opportunity to buy, as it is good rich, sugar tree land and has been seeded to clover regularly and I expect has had more hogs fed on it than any same amount of acres in Rush county.

Buildings are in good shape—Two houses, two barns and other buildings, extra good and complete, tool sheds, cribs, hog houses. Fencing in good average shape. Ditching extra good. Out of the 335 acres, 300 of same is good plow land, balance good pasture land with never failing running spring water.

As this is probably one of the largest tracts of land ever sold at auction throughout this section, we will offer it in lots of from one-fourth up to the entire body, giving everyone a chance at this great opportunity.

All Personal Property to be Sold on Same Day and on Premises.

There will be a big lunch served at noon and we insist that you come out and spend the day with us and witness one of the biggest sales ever held in Southern Indiana.

On amounts of $100 and over, one-third cash, one-third in twelve months, and one-third in 24 months. Interest 8% semi-annually.

Brain Youth

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

SOMEONE has given to us the striking sentence: "To the young, Nature does nothing but give; from the old she does nothing but take away." Your brain is the only Power in your entire body that may not age.

Keep Youth alive in Your Brain. To your Brain your Will may say: "Life at its longest is but like the looking back and reviewing of a single day." For Youth never returns to your muscles and to your bones and to your arteries—but Youth trols along with your Brain—if your Will says so.

Keep Youth alive in Your Brain. William E. Gladstone, past eighty, chopping down trees, translating the Classics, anew, tramping the fields and solving mysteries—stands out as one of the most striking examples of those who kept their Brains young as their bodies grew old.

Keep Youth alive in Your Brain. It is interest that puts Youth into your Brain and drives away age. Just so long as you are interested in the things you are doing, just so long work will grow upon you, strengthening your loyalty and enthusiasm and every ounce of your effort.

Keep Youth alive in Your Brain.

Sleeps Any Old Way Now

"I am 50 years old and never was sick until 2 years ago when I got stomach trouble. I have spent a fortune for medicine which did not cure. I kept on suffering and getting worse. A fellow worker told me about Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. After taking three doses I felt like a different man; before taking it I could not lie on my back nor right side. Now I can sleep any old way." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the "entarrhal mucus" from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale at Drug stores everywhere. (Advt.)

Makeshift Coverings?—Or Positive Clothes Protection?

How often have you seen automobile seats covered with old newspapers, towels, linen dusters—most anything thrown over the seat to keep clothes clean?

That is what Gordon Jiffy Cushion Slips are for—positive clothes protection. They have done away with the makeshift covering of auto seats. They are removable and washable. They cover the cushions you sit on and lean against—protecting your clothes from the hidden dirt and grime that lodges in the creases and crevices of the upholstery.

Washable—Removable
$3.40 to $8.15 Per Seat

Gordon Jiffy Cushion Slips button-hole onto your car like any simple garment. Put them on or take them off in a "jiffy." When soiled, throw them in with the family wash or send them to the laundry. They are made of durable, pre-shrunk tub materials.

Made in stock sizes in light and dark patterns, ready to go on your car without fitting or fussing.

HUERTA MOVES IN FAMOUS CASTLE

Same Historic Building Employed as Fortress That Americans Stormed and Captured in 1847

HAS A LUXURIOUS INTERIOR

Maximilian, Austrian Archduke, Furnished Residence With Most Exquisite Productions of Europe

By RALPH H. TURNER
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

City of Mexico, July 7 (By Mail)—Famous Chapultepec Castle, splendidly poised high above the park bearing the same name, and overlooking the wide valley of Mexico, is once more the home of a Mexican ruler.

It was this historic castle, employed as a fortress, that the Americans stormed and captured back in 1847; and on the same spot, many years before, one of the Montezumas converted the fortress into a summer residence, where he established his harem, baths and hunting lodge.

Chapultepec, besides its historic associations and the magnificent view it commands of the Mexican valley, also wins fame from the fact that it is one of the most luxuriously appointed residences on the American continent. But it held few charms for that bewhiskered old rascal, Venustiano Carranza. Carranza spurned Chapultepec, summer and winter. On rare occasions he used the palace as a place for entertainment, but as a living place he preferred the simplicity of a plain dwelling in the capital's residence district.

To the more cultured eye of Adolfo de la Huerta, the new provisional president, Chapultepec had more appeal. De la Huerta moved into the castle, bag and baggage, a few days after he had been inaugurated. It is not meant to create the impression that the new Mexican ruler is fond of hills. Far from it. In many lines of administration, De la Huerta has abolished forms of pomp that even Carranza tolerated. But De la Huerta, the practical Sonoran, probably reasoned that the castle was already furnished, that if he didn't occupy it, it would remain vacant and that apartments in Mexico City were mighty scarce. So he called the moving van and Chapultepec Castle is today the "regular residence" of a Mexican president for the first time since the days of the other Huerta, the one who drew the frowns of President Wilson.

The view is unsurpassed, as the real estate boomer might say, but Adolfo de la Huerta, as he stands on the castle balcony, won't survey the same scenic beauty as filled the eyes of his historic predecessors. Mayard Taylor thought the most beautiful view in the world was that of the vale of Cashmere and after it, the valley of Mexico from Chapultepec heights. But politics—revolutionary politics—has changed the vista since "Montezuma sought distraction from administrative cares and communed with dryad oracles in the hallowed groves of ancient Ahuehuetes."

But De la Huerta may still revel in the comfort of a luxurious interior.

Maximilian, the Austrian archduke who became emperor of Mexico furnished the castle with the most exquisite productions of Europe—marble statues, alabaster vases, period furniture, Oriental rugs—achieving both elaborateness and comfort. In 1866, at the orders of Maximilian, the castle was renovated, the corridors were adorned with voluptuous pictures after the style of a Pompeian villa, and the grounds were terraced. Most of the pictures are gone today.

There still remain, however, the favorite boudoir of the Empress Carlota, its walls adorned in pink satin brocade; the dining salon, finished in beautifully carved Alsatian oak, with panels of Gobelin tapestries; the ambassadorial department, pink and gold in Louis V style; and countless other furnishings which still retain their excellence, including the mahogany bed in which Elihu Root rested his closely cropped head when on a mission to the old Diaz government.

Construction of the castle was begun in 1783, but did not reach its present state until many years afterward. Today it covers almost the whole top of Chapultepec, which in the Aztec language means Grass-hopper Hill, so-called from the number of insects that once infested the region.

Under the Carranza regime visitors inspected the castle upon obtaining special permits. It is still open to visitors, but being the president's residence, permits are more difficult to obtain and the hours of inspection more limited.

COMMUNITY INSPIRED TO INCORPORATE TOWN

Coke Otto, a small mining community near Hamilton, Ohio, isn't content to be just a group of people any longer.

Coke Otto wants to be an incorporated town.

And it's all the result of community meetings and activities inaugurated by the Rural Extension Secretary of Hamilton Chapter of the Red Cross. When Hamilton engaged its rural worker, she went among other places to Coke Otto, where perhaps 700 people live. Sanitary conditions were very lax there, so one of the first movements was the organization of a "tin can brigade." This was divided into eight subcommittees and prizes were offered the group that kept the most rubbish out of the community. The first prize was a set of tools for the tin can brigade. The second prize was a set of tools for the tin can brigade. The third prize was a set of tools for the tin can brigade.

STING OF AN ANGEL

Capt. J. A. Tench, St. Paul, Minn. Striking Difference in Program at Salvation Army Revival

MUSIC PROVES A FEATURE

There was a good attendance at last night's meeting held at the Salvation Army hall, which was the second meeting of the farewell revival services being conducted by Evangelist Joseph Wainwright of Shelbyville.

The playing of the band and the good singing of the congregation helped to make the services very impressive. After the singing of the first song, the officer in charge of the Salvation Army work here, Captain J. A. Tench, brought the message of the evening, using for the basis of his remarks, "The Serpent and the Sin."

The captain said that "while no doubt the sting of the serpent is bad, it is not as bad as the sting of sin. Yes, you are safer lying on the banks of the Nile surrounded with the most poisonous adders, than you are here in lovely America with sin in your heart. The sting of the serpent is but unto death but the sting of sin will last through eternity." The charming music was used to draw a lesson to show how the world is charming the young people today away from God. Meetings today at 2:30 p. m. and 8 p. m. with prayer meeting at 7:45 in the Glory Room. Your presence is requested.

GROVER VICTIM OF BLOOD POISONING

Charles W. Risk, Knightstown Business Man, Dies After Illness of Four Months

IS SURVIVED BY THE WIDOW

Knightstown, Ind., Aug. 3.—Charles W. Risk, widely known business man of this place, died at his home here Sunday, from blood poisoning. He was 56 years of age at the time of his death and during his residence in Knightstown had become known to a large circle of friends throughout the county.

Charles Risk had long been a prominent figure in the business of Knightstown. He had been a grocer for some twenty-seven years and a resident of Knightstown during the greater part of his life.

He is survived by a widow, but has no children. The funeral services will be held Tuesday at Knightstown and burial will be made at Glenview cemetery here.

Mr. Risk has suffered for about four months from blood poisoning and while other things contributed to his death this is given as the principal cause for his death, which did not come unexpectedly. He had not been able to take an active part in his business during his late sickness.

NEW OIL SHIPMENT
RECORD IS MADE

Eleven Million Barrels a Month Are Produced From the Rich Fields of Tampico

SHIPMENTS ARE DIFFICULT

Envoys and Government Still Argue and Market Conditions Are Given a Set Back

By RALPH H. TURNER
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

City of Mexico, July 26 (By Mail)—There is an odd paradox about the Mexican oil situation which today is being especially well illustrated.

This paradox exists because there are two phases to the "problem" of Mexican oil, first, the angle of political hickering which is carried on in Mexico City between emissaries of the American oil companies and the Mexican government; second, the business of producing and transporting the oil in the rich Tampico district.

The first phase today offers the spectacle of a deadlock between the oil envoys in Mexico City and the government officials. After a series of conferences in which "demands" and "ultimatums" were said to have figured prominently the settlement of the oil controversy in its legal and political aspects, is just as remote as it was under the Carranza regime.

But in contrast to this situation, which would seem to indicate that petroleum affairs were in a very bad way, the men who actually produce the oil in the Tampico fields have just established a record for petroleum shipments of more than eleven million barrels a month.

So whatever the merits of the American oil men's contentions, the fact remains that today the producing and exporting end of the Mexican oil industry is in a more flourishing condition than at any previous time.

During May, the last month for which official figures are available twenty companies shipped 11,200,123 barrels of crude petroleum and its products from the ports of Tampico, Tuxpam and Port Lobos. This is the greatest amount of petroleum ever exported from Mexico. The former record, established in March, was exceeded by nearly one million barrels. Leading the list in May's record-exports was the Hausteca Petroleum Company, controlled by E. L. Doheny of Los Angeles. El Aguila, the big British company, ranked second with the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey third.

With production continuing at the rate which has been set today it is estimated that Mexican fields will produce this year a total of 140,000,000 barrels, as against 88 million in 1919. These figures record the remarkable growth of the Mexican oil industry, despite all the charges and counterecharges which are made with regard to Article 27 of the constitution taxation and other subjects which have provided international controversy for the past three years.

Increased shipments abroad have been made possible by the laying of new pipe lines and the establishment of other facilities for getting the oil to seaboard. Production, however is still in excess of the capacity for handling it. Mexican experts declare that the petroleum production for 1920 would equal one-third of the entire world output (it is now estimated at one-fifth) were there adequate facilities for shipping the oil. There are neither enough tank steamers nor pipe lines. At the present time it is said there are pipe line facilities for moving 220 million barrels annually and enough tankers in trade with Mexico to carry away about 150 million barrels annually.

According to Roberto Pesquera, Mexican financial agent for the United States and general adviser to the provisional government:

"One-fifth of all the tankers in the world are operating in and out of Mexican ports, but if the combined tank fleets of the various maritime countries were placed in Mexican service, the productive capacity of the Mexican fields, supplemented by some additional pipe lines, would be equal to the demand upon them. A few additional pipe lines would ensure full cargoes for the tankers 365 days of the year."

It is in the realization of security, it is in the expansion of prosperity, it is in the hour of the nation's life, that we find the greatest opportunity for activity and pleasure, that the real character of men is disclosed. Burke.

You can make this surprising experiment in our store — The Test of the Two Violins

Violins differ subtly in tone! Test the New Edison Realism by that fact.

Stradivarius. This violin has a rich, mellow tone.

We have an "Ave Maria" RE-CREATION played by Albert Spalding with his Guarnerius. This famous violin has a brilliant, singing tone. We have a second "Ave Maria" RE-CREATION played by Carl Flesch with his genuine

Come in and compare these two RE-CREATIONS—tone for tone. If the New Edison makes clear the distinction between the singing Guarnerius and the mellow Stradivarius, you know it has perfect realism for you.

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

Albert Spalding himself recently took part in a test of the New Edison's realism, at New York City. He played in direct comparison with the RE-CREATION of his performance by the New Edison. Mr. Henry Hadley, one of the jury of the three distinguished musicians who listened from behind a screen, said: "The RE-CREATION matched Mr. Spalding's performance tone for tone."

The New Edison is the only phonograph which has given this conclusive proof of its perfect realism. It has triumphed in 2,000 such comparison-tests.

PRICES! HALT!

Since 1914, the total price increase in the New Edison has been less than 75%. Mr. Edison has personally absorbed more than one half of the increased cost of manufacture. He may not be able to do this much longer. Buy now—if you want today's prices. Our Budget Plan will help you. It distributes the payment over the months to come.

AMERICANS DONATE FOR FRENCH ORPHANS

Seven Athletic Associations in Which Women Take Part Give Proceeds to Worthy Cause.

TO EDUCATE THE CHILDREN

Paris, (By Mail)—At a day of feminine sports held recently at Dreux in which were represented seven athletic associations of girls and women from P. Paris, from Chartres, from Choisy-le-Roi, from Auteuil and Dreux, and from the Children's Colony of the American Committee for Devastated France at Boullay-Thierry high honors were carried off by the American trained girls.

The first prize of twenty-five francs for the relay race, and the first prize of a similar sum for tug of war—both typical American sports—went to the children from the Committee Colony.

Little Mademoiselle Matheu of Boullay-Thierry won first children's prize and Mademoiselle Ratel, also from the Colony, second children's prize for the running board jump. In the running high jump, too, and the eighty meter dash Colony children ran away with all the honors.

All these prize-winning girls are children brought to the American Committee Colony at Boullay-Thierry from the devastated Alsace. Once undernourished and undisciplined, with nerves suffering from the shock of war, they have been fed and warmed and educated and love back into healthy, happy normality. The girls' gymnastics and musical drill are under the direction of Miss Mary Hirkamp, an American, while the boys' work is supervised by Monsieur Fallet, a hero of Verdun, with Croix de Guerre and Médaille Militaire.
